Stillwater tiles are completely handmade, using original molds of actual plants and lace.

All tiles are custom-made to order and can be cut to size to match existing tiles.

A broad spectrum of color samples are available free of charge, shipping fees only.

Tiles are finished matte, satin or shiny glass glaze.

Custom work, billed by the hour, includes creating molds out of actual plants or heirloom lace for murals, plaques and decos.

The characteristic beauty of a handmade porcelain tile is in its subtle variations of shade, color, texture and size.
 Tiles produced for individual orders may vary slightly from displayed samples. Custom orders made to specification are nonrefundable.
